TRALL RIDERS

No. 89 MARCH 1950

So You Want to be a Trail Rider!

Who are the Trail Riders?

The Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies comprise an independent society of alpine enthusiasts of both sexes who each year hold two or more camps—usually of five days' duration and a 12-day ride—in the vicinity of Banff or Lake Louise.

Membership in the order is open to all, regardless of race, creed, color or profession.

What are their aims?

Principal aims of the society are to encourage horseback riding over the more remote trails of the Canadian Rockies, to encourage the construction of new trails and the maintenance and improvement of those already in use, to promote good fellowship, interest in wild life, and to co-operate with other organizations holding similar aims.

How are they governed?

Established in 1923 by John Murray Gibbon, well known author and lyricist, and retired general publicity agent for the Canadian Pacific Railway, the Trail Riders have their own constitution, executive officers, council, and various operating committees. A new slate of officers is elected annually, the office of President alternating each year between a Canadian and an American Trail Rider.

How is the camp conducted?

Trail Riders make their headquarters at a permanent camp from which a series of outstanding trails radiate. They set out each morning on new trails, lunch on the trail, and return to camp at nightfall for supper, singsong and campfire entertainment. Riders make their homes in tepees, artistically decorated by Indians of the local Stony tribe. Sleeping bags take the place of beds.

How do I join the annual ride?

To make application for any of the annual rides simply drop a note to the Secretary-Treasurer, Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies, Room 284, Windsor Station, Montreal, Que., enclosing a deposit of $10.00, and stating which of the rides you wish to attend. The deposit is credited to total trail ride fee, the balance being payable in Banff up to the day before ride gets under way. If you find it necessary to cancel your reservation on or before June 15 your deposit is refunded. If it is your first ride, the Secretary-Treasurer will enclose an "outfitter's form" requesting information as to your experience, weight, etc., so that a suitable horse may be assigned.

What is the cost?

Cost of each of the five-day rides is the same as last year—$60.00.

This includes horse, saddle equipment, tepee accommodation, meals, guide services, gratuities and bus transportation between Banff and corral, and transportation of duffle to and from camp.

What experience is required?

You don't need to be an expert rider to join the organization. Some join the rides with very little experience in the saddle. The horses are mild mannered, sure footed mountain cayuses noted for their dependability on the trails.

The calvacade moves in single file mostly at a walk, an average day's ride comprising 15 to 20 miles with rest periods. Seated in a big western saddle with hand resting on saddle horn, even the greenest dude can watch the landscape in comfort and security. And if you happen to be weary some morning you can laze around camp all day without loss of face!

How do I become a member?

To be a full-fledged member of the organization you must have at least 50 miles of Rocky Mountain trail riding to your credit. This mileage can be acquired either with the Trail Riders themselves or independently.

Upon completion of a membership form and payment of the annual $2.00 fee, you become a full-fledged member and are entitled to wear the button of the order, these varying with your accumulated mileage. (See page 21). As a member you are entitled to receive the Trail Riders' official magazine, issued three times a year. You also become eligible for any office in the executive or council.

Will You be in the Line-up? It's Time to Reserve Your Place!

NOW is the hour, Trail Riders—the hour to start planning for the healthiest, happiest, heartiest five days you've ever spent in the saddle—or out of it!

Of course you know what we're talking about—particularly if you've already taken a five-day trip with the Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies. If not, the opportunity is yours this summer. And what's more, the Trail Riders want you to come along and join in the fun.

In flipping back the pages of our favorite calendar we notice big red rings around the following dates: July 14-15-16-17-18 and July 21-22-23-24-25. These of course, are the dates of the two five-day rides scheduled for 1950.

So why not grab a red pencil yourself and do a bit of art work on your own calendar! We'll admit that July is still a faint green spot on a distant pine-scented horizon. However, we all know how tempus can fugit. We also know that time can sneak up behind us and catch us unawares.

Remember this too, dear trail rider and trail rider-to-be. We have limited accommodation only and it's a case of first here first served as far as applications are concerned.

Two five-day rides are scheduled for 1950. And should there be sufficient interest a 12-day ride will also be included on the summer program.

Dates have been chosen to coincide with the driest and sunniest two weeks of the Rocky Mountain summertime (as based on average statistics) while the 1950 campsite has been selected with a view to obtaining the greatest number of advantages from the standpoint of trail riders, outfitter and horses alike.

For the trail riders it offers scenic thrills galore, for the outfitter abundant wood for tepee poles and fuel, and for the horses acres of lush pasturage. It's a grand picture from every direction!

Remember the dates for 1950!

Trails Looked Good 100 Years ago! Today They Look Better than Ever

by TILLIE KNIGHT

HERE it is, Trail Riders—a first-hand preview of the trails we ride this summer! Written by our genial V.P., Tillie Knight, it shows what we can expect in the way of scenic effects, camping facilities, fishing opportunities and historic interest.

Extracts from Captain Palliser's book, quoted in this article, prove that Palliser and Whitemans Pass looked just as tempting 100 years ago as they do today. Those who have yet to ride over this country will undoubtedly agree with Captain Palliser's observations when they see it for themselves.

The ride itself will commence at the intersection of the National Park boundary southwest of the Spray Lakes where the new Calgary Power Company dam is under construction. From there we ride about 12 miles up the Spray River, camping in an open meadow surrounded by high mountains. Buses will take us from Banff to the corral where we transfer to the saddle.

The campsite is one of the most beautiful—and satisfactory—we have had in years. To the east of the camp lie some 10 miles of open country with any number of meadows for horse pasturage. There is also plenty of wood for tepee poles and tepee fires as well as a number of beaver dams in the vicinity—sufficient to guarantee good prospects for the fishermen. As for the camera fans there is just no end of opportunities.

Three excellent side trips have been lined up for the two five-day rides—two of them over the Continental Divide in British Columbia. The first will take us up on Palliser Pass and the other two over Whiteman's Pass. These will be conducted from camp as part of the regular itinerary.

To give our readers and prospective members an idea of the general lay of the land, we quote the following extracts from the writings of Captain John Palliser:

On September 15th, 1845, Father Pierre Jean De Smet, a Belgian Jesuit Priest, wrote a letter to his Superior, from the "Foot of the Cross of Peace". He was at that moment, on the summit of the Great Divide between the headwaters of the Cross and Spray Rivers, where, as he remarks "The Christian's Standard, the Cross, has been reared at the source of these two rivers". We breakfasted on the

The President Looks Ahead

Greetings and Best Wishes to all Trail Riders!

Here it is 1950 and here we are already making plans for the not-so-very-far-off summer vacation. And to most of our members we hope that means a five-day outing with the Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies.

We have every reason to expect a banner season. For one thing we have an exceptionally fine itinerary lined up. It will be new trail ride country for most of us—up the Spray River with trips to Whiteman Pass and Palliser Pass—and those favorite objectives—Marvel Lake and Mount Assiniboine!

As for me, I'd like to unravel my lariat and swing it round and round—so that the loop brings in many of the older Trail Riders—and make this a real reunion year. We know you young Trail Riders are already champing at the bit and hope you're busy sharpening your spurs and creasing your Stetsons.

Meanwhile, we're looking forward to meeting many of our former trail riding friends—and making lots of new ones—when we take to the trails on those red letter days of July 14 and July 21, 1950.

We'll be seeing you!

FERN BREWSTER

bank of a limpid lake at the base of the Cross of Peace.

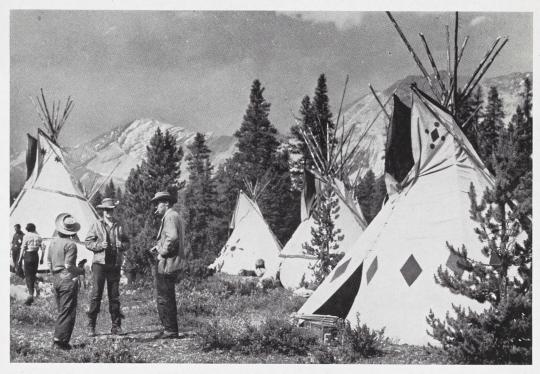

By a steep declivity, we entered a rich valley, agreably diversified by enamalled meads, magnificent forests and lakes in which the salmon-trout abound, that in a few minutes we procured sufficient for an excellent repast (Note—those of us who have been there will at once recognize the summit, the head of the Spray and the Lakes). De Smet then passed through Whitemans Pass and down into the present Canmore, and so on down the Bow River.

The trip over Palliser Pass will be some 20 miles or more, proceeding to the edge of the Royal group, the whole area being covered with very high rugged mountains. We have lunch on the British Columbia side by a beautiful little lake.

On the Whitemans Pass trip the trail leaves directly west of camp going up a narrow beautiful valley in heavy timber, soon breaking into open country, walled in by high mountains, we have a rapid climb up into the continental divide. The view from the top of Whitemans Pass is stupendous. We make a circle trip and return via the Spray Lake trail—through country abounding in elk and moose.

The trip to Marvel Lake and Mount Assiniboine district is a good long ride and those who have been lucky enough to have visited Mount Assiniboine at other times, will always remember the thrill they received when they first view the Matterhorn of the Rockies.

All in all, it looks like a grand ride in every way.

Let's Have Those Entries!

Due to lack of sunshine on last summer's ride the flow of Townsend Trophy entries has not been up to normal levels. As a result we are extending the deadline for submissions until April 30.

All trail riders who have what they consider likely candidates for the big silver cup are requested to send their entries to the Secretary-Treasurer as soon as possible. Any photo—land-scape or personalities—will be eligible for entry.

Photos should be printed in glossy finish, no larger than 8" x 10" in size, and accompanied by sealed envelope containing candidate's name and address. The envelope's exterior should carry the sender's nom-de-plume, the same nom-de-plume to be printed on the back of each photograph submitted.

Entries are examined by a panel of three judges, all of whom are highly qualified in the fields of art and photography and none of whom is himself a member of the trail riders' organization.

And remember this... you don't have to be an expert to win the trophy. A photo taken by a battered old box model has as good a chance as that taken by an expensive high precision instrument.

So let's have those pix. If you win, you receive a beautiful silver cup with your name engraved on its shiny exterior! Your name will also be engraved on the big Townsend Trophy which is on exhibit at Banff Springs Hotel.

Here's your chance, Trail Riders! Don't be modest—your own collection may include the winning entry.

New-Horse Cars Popular With Four-Footed Patrons

WE are accustomed to receiving a fair share of bouquets from passengers who have ridden on our comfortable new coaches and sleepers. If horses could talk—or write—we would, no doubt, be hearing a few well directed words of praise for the Company's horse express cars which cater to a silent but still highy important clientele.

This is particularly true of the two new horse cars which were first put into service on the Company's western lines early last year. Measuring 80 feet in length the cars provide comfortable accommodation for 18 horses and six attendants.

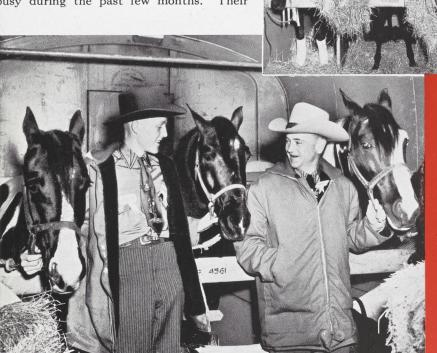

According to enthusiastic horsemen, the cars ride "as smoothly as a passenger car". There is, moreover, more room in the centre because of the new and improved arrangement of the horses' stalls. The cars carry hay and grain for the horses, while there is always plenty of room for the varied assortment of dogs, goats and other stall walkers.

The two cars have been exceptionally busy during the past few months. Their inhabitants have included valuable race horses, thoroughbred saddle horses from overseas and those destined for such notable events as the recent Calgary Stampeders parade.

Twelve equines travelled in the 16-car Stampeders' Special late in November between Calgary and Toronto and return. Accommodated in one of the new horse cars, they reportedly weathered the trip in grand style.

Recent race horse shipments have included consignments from Vancouver to Winnipeg, Calgary to Winnipeg, Edmonton to Calgary, Winnipeg to Toronto, Toronto to Calgary, and Toronto to Vancouver—all of which proves that race horses get around even when they aren't performing for an audience of excited fans.

Horses are well looked after in new cars which offer more space than in older models.

The Poundmaker's Strange Ritual

by MARY WEEKES

ACCORDING to tradition it is over a century since the last buffalo pound was made on the prairie. There are two known sites of old buffalo pounds on the Assiniboine Reserve, which is located south of Sintaluta, Sask., and on one of these sites not long ago a great buffalo hunting knife was found.

Mina Yuhen (Has The Knife), chief of a large tribe of Assiniboines, and also a medicine man, presided at the making of one of these pounds. This noted pound-maker had two nicknames, "Chatka" (Left-Handed), and "Tatokana" (Antelope). The white traders at Fort Union—where the Chief died in 1843—called him "Kohan", which meant "Hurry". Always he was in a hurry and hurrying the members of his band.

Chief Mina Yuhen was a methodical person and he conducted his life with a great deal of tribal ceremony. He adopted the custom of planting a flag-pole in front of his tepee and at its top attached the hide of a buffalo head. This hide was a sacred emblem (Tatanka) symbolizing the art of poundmaking which the presiding Manitou of buffalo had conferred upon him, and indicating that he was the monarch of the buffalo herds. When the chief decided to move camp, he had the flag-pole with the attached buffalo head taken down, placed on a tripod and pointed in the direction of his contemplated journey. This was the sign to the camp and the direction of the chief's intention.

The making of a buffalo pound called for skill and ingenuity. The first step was to find a suitable location, that is, a place where there was a natural drop—as in a ravine—of about five feet which was to be a 'jump-off' or entrance to the pound or trap. If such a natural terrain could not be found, an artificial drop was constructed. The trap was a circular area of from forty to ninety feet in diameter, depending on the size of the camp and the number of buffalo the hunters wished to entrap. This trap was surrounded by a strong fence built of poles attached to posts (on the prairie poplar poles were used) into which were woven branches and willows to present the appearance of solid walls.

In the centre of this area a tall pole was planted, or if a tree were convenient, it was left. From this pole or tree the Chief caused to be suspended a stuffed raven or magpie — both being meat-eating birds. Only one aperture was left in the fence.

This was opposite the entrance for the buffalo and was only for the entrance and exit of the poundmaker.

The "mystic" dimension of the entrance for the buffalo was usually seven paces wide or the length of the two flint dried buffalo hides which curtained off the entrance as soon as the buffalo entered the pound. In other words the width of the opening was about twenty-one feet. The flint (or dried) buffalo hides, which curtained off the enclosure, made a rattling noise which kept the buffalo from going near it once they were in the pound. Thus, the weakest part of the pound, Indian ingenuity made the strongest.

Two wing lines or fences — about six panels of poles — also attached to posts were then built and continued with "facines" which flared out from the entrance. These "facines" were branches, underbrush, and twigs tied in bundles and attached to willow twigs planted in the ground. Close to the panels of poles, these "facines" or lead-up fences were placed close together, giving the appearance of solidity, but as they extended out they were spaced farther and farther apart. These led-up fences were continued for a distance of two or three miles, but they were not as substantially built as the wing portions nearer the trap.

When all was ready, the dedication of the pound took place. This was an elaborate and sacred ceremony extending over a period of four days. The preliminary rites took place in the tepee of the Poundmaker. To quote Dan Kennedy of the Assiniboine

Reserve:

"At the time of the poundmaking, two buffalo tepees were set up, facing the setting and cunning. 'He-Who-Brings-Them-In', he was called.''

When the buffalo driver left, the Poundmaker entered the pound through the aperture, taking his sacred objects, and continued with his invocation, sitting near these objects of veneration and the sacrificial offerings. He filled the sacred pipe with kiniknik (Indian tobacco) and incensed it over burning sweet grass. Then, holding it aloft, he offered the smoke to the Great Manitou, invoking his intercession for a successful poundmaking.

The mystic rattler was then incensed. It was made of "rawhide in the shape of a gourd. The hide was filled with earth or sand and allowed to dry, then the earth or sand was poured out. The hide was now hard and into this gourd-shaped affair a few

This article is based on correspondence and personal interviews between the author and Dan Kennedy (Ochankugahe) of the Assiniboine Reserve, a well educated Indian. According to Mr. Kennedy, the buffalo pound was a sacred institution and invoked only when very necessary. He emphasizes the pound was in no way responsible for the final destruction of the buffalo.

sun, to which the Poundmaker addressed the invocation, 'Wee-yogh-peyam Tatankanum-tepee-no' (Sun setting-towards-buffalotwo-tepees). This was a plea for the success of the undertaking.

'Here objects of veneration were exposed. They were a buffalo head, symbol of the presiding Manitou of the buffalo, and the raven or magpie, whose help was invoked for the success of the buffalo pound as they were allies of the undertaking, being carnivorous and depending upon meat. sacrificial offerings were placed near the objects of veneration. These consisted of from two dozen to one hundred peeled fruit tree sticks, (saskatoon or other fruit) about eighteen inches long. Half of these were painted red, the other half were painted vellow. A number of these sticks were sacrificial offerings of sweat baths, a religious rite, the delight of the Manitou, to invoke his aid in the projected hunt. The greater number of these pledges, however, were simple sacrificial offerings.

"For four successive nights the invocation ceremony kept up. On the fourth night, before dawn, the buffalo driver, whose name was Toka-Ki-He-Kuna (He Who Comes First), left quietly to join up with his brothers, the buffalo, where they roamed or fed. After the Poundmaker himself, Toak-Ki-He-Kuna was the most important man in the undertaking, as the success of bringing-in the buffalo depended upon his subtlety pebbles were dropped. At one end a handle was inserted. This made an excellent rattler.

Standing with it in his hand, the Pound-maker began to chant the mystic canticles or call for his brothers, the buffalo, invoking the two Tatanka deities toward the setting sun, keeping time with his rattler to the rhythm of his chant until he was warned of the approach of the herd. When the herd approached the 'jump-off' he left.

Not all Poundmakers had the same religious ceremonies in connection with their work. White Raven (Kanghiska) caused himself to be "suspended from the centre post in a sort of hammock or swing made of buffalo thongs and from this hammock he chanted for his brothers, the buffalo, to come.

The buffalo driver maneuvered the herd by directing smoke in their direction, being careful to keep out of sight. The smoke he contrived by keeping alight with dried buffalo chips the burning ember — a piece of dozy wood — which he carried. There were no matches in those days and flint was used to kindle fires. He was careful to keep in a position where the wind would waft the smoke toward the buffalo and send them moving in the direction of the 'was-a-tomp,' or mouth of the pound. It was extremely important that he keep to windward of the moving buffalo.

Always a second hunter acted as a decoy to lead the herd into the flare of the pound

Smoking Tepee Fires "Immortalized" in Song

When Bill Round suggested (partly in jest, he says) a title for an original campfire song, Trail Rider Llew Gardiner of the Portland Oregonian went to work on the song in earnest. Suggested title was "By a Campfire in a Tepee when the Wood Smoke makes us Weepy.".

Below you'll see the results of Llew's creative attempts which look pretty good to the editor. To get the best effect, says Llew, the song should be sung to the tune of "Shuffle off to Buffalo". And those of us who were around in 1932 should still remember it. Here it is:

By a campfire in a tepee
When the wood smoke makes us weep-y
And we fry our hide—I'm goin'
Gonna pack my duffle,
Goin' on the five-day ride

Where nocturnal sounds are creepy, And the city folk get sleepy, And the stars don't hide — I'm goin' Off I'm gonna hustle, Hustle to the old trail ride!

Soon the cook tent fire's a blazin'
You smell the bacon in the pan —
And the coffee's just amazin'
Although they make it in a can —

Where the birds are feelin' cheep-y And our breakfast plates are heap-y And the grins are wide: I'm goin'

Take me from the bustle, Take me on the old trail ride.

Hotel Reservations

For the benefit of those wishing to make their hotel reservations early and who are unfamiliar with the hotel situation in Banff, we publish herewith a list of some of the town's better known hotels:

Banff Springs Hotel, Mount Royal Hotel, King Edward Hotel, Cascade Hotel, the Homestead Hotel, the Villa and Mountainholm Lodge. In addition there are many camps, cabins and private homes in and around Banff which cater to tourists.

With Trail Riders On Assiniboine Ride

Trail Riders learned with deep regret of the passing on January 7 of Philip D. Macarow of Montreal in the western division of Montreal General Hospital following a short illness. He had been a member of the Trail Riders since 1943.

Born in Kingston, Ont., Mr. Macarow was a graduate of Royal Canadian Naval College, Halifax and saw naval service in World War I. He attended Queen's and Columbia Universities being subsequently engaged in advertising work in New York City.

Upon his return to Canada Mr. Macarow joined the McKim agency in Montreal. He became a vice-president in 1936 and a director the following year. He took an active part in the work of the Province of Quebec Society for Crippled Children, serving as a director for several years.

Joining the Trail Riders organization in 1943, Mr. Macarow attended the ride that year to Mount Assiniboine. He wore the Trail Riders silver button and never lost interest in the organization's activities.

as it approached. If on foot, he covered himself with a buffalo robe; if on horseback, he s'mulated the appearance of a buffalo, being careful to keep far enough away to support his disguise. Once the driver got the buffalo inside the mouth of the pound his work was done. Then, he either concealed himself behind the facines or rode off.

At this point the other hunters who were hiding behind the facines and spaced at proper distances took over. It should be remembered that the sign-posts or fences (facines) which fanned out from the trap to the wide opening were only little bundles of willows planted in the ground — a slight surge of the moving animals and they would be through. By bobbing up behind the facines, alternately, the herd was kept moving steadily and surely into the pound.

After the buffalo were killed, they were distributed equally among those camps of Indians that had taken part in the hunt or pound making. After the division of the kill and after the carcasses had been skinned and cut up and each participant apportioned his share, the enclosure was cleaned up.

A Foal's Paradise

by Frank and Ernest

I'm only a colt, I know I am young, My praises by men have never been sung, I repeat I am young but nobody's foal, To ride on the Trail Ride is my future goal.

I'm only a colt, not worried a bit, I know out at Banff, I'll sure be a hit, I'll ride o'er the plains and high in the hills, Way up on the Skyline to sample new thrills.

I'm only a colt, not held in by reins, Admired by boys and even the janes, But later in life, the riders will say, The colt is a horse, hip hip hip hooray!

Elijah Cornpone All Set for Trail Ride

Dear Editor:-

Last night after chores me, sis, paw and maw was a-lookin' over thet purty blue trail ride book you fellers writes up there in Canada and figgers mebbe we-all might be tolable proud to be a-takin' thet ride up Spray Crik.

Now we ain't calculatin' to come scarce. We likely not to have no cash afore crops is made and we ain't suggestin' we go without payin' nothin. Mebbe you kin take four coon skins stid of them ten-dollar deposits. They be mighty purty fer totin' sech as snake-bite tonic, shells fer shootin' irons and extry cornpone. And coon skins come mighty high this season.

We ain't a-fixin' to ride none of them Brewster hosses neither. We got old Min and Bess who kin tote us over them trails of yourn as good as on the clearin'. We figger Maw and sis kin ride old Min same as Bess kin tote me and Paw. Don't reserve us no saddles neither as them hosses fits us perfect.

We cain't say we think much o' them fancy trappins them dudes dresses their-selves in. We kin make do just as good with plowin' togs. We-all figger our Sunday trappins be too dern good fer them mountain trails. We're still a savin' them fer time Sis marries up and Paw sez she better hurry account the roaches is a layin' fer all them fancy duds.

Now we ain't seen nothin nohow about po'k chops, cornpone or grits and cracklin's. All we see is pictures o' quare lookin' round things, looks like swamp cabbage, a-sizzlin' on the fire called flepjecks or somethin'. We ain't fixin to start a ruckus over them Trail Ride vittles so we calculate bringin' our own rations.

Them tents the book calls teepees or sumpin don't look like much fer a-sleepin. Thet big hole with sticks a-pokin' out the top looks like it'd let in a heap o' water time a shower gits goin.' It'd be like to sleepin' in the smokehouse two year gone time the shingles blowed off the roof.

We hopin' you folks won't mind do we bring along our own sleepin' bags stid o' rentin' em from the secerty-treasurer. We got plenty old cornmeal sacks lyin' round the corn crib to make do fer sleepin' time they be stuffed with straw and corn shucks. We aim to feed the stuffin' to Min and Bess come end o' the ride and thet'll save you folks a heap o' fodder.

Now we ain't got paper enough fer writin' a heap further and besides Maw is a hollerin' fer me to go fill the woodbox.

Hopin' to meet you folks on thet trail long Spray Crik. It looks a heap biggern the crik runs behind Zeke Tolliver's pertater field.

> Much obliged, ELIJAH CORNPONE.

CORRAL CHATTER!

Our youngest (in heart) trail rider—Uncle Ray Bagley—kept himself busy all December writing notes to all the folks he met last summer and making plans to attract new members to the 1950 ride! "Too cold outside," says Ray, "I keep warm thinking of all those grand friends I made last summer."

Jean in tepee town (Ace Williams)

Our genial Mistress of Ceremonies, Jean Stewart, found she could not leave the mountains. Result: Jeannie is spending the snow season at Sunshine Lodge and rumor has it she is getting skiers in the same merry mood she bestows upon us Trail Riders!

Congratulations to Herb Ashley, formerly of Banff and now of Camrose, Alta., for super job on trail ride map in this issue . . . Frank Arnott of Ocean Falls, B.C., has graduated into a mountain climber and is now an active member of the Alpine Club. Hopes to be on this year's ride . . .

Harvey Bath, guitar-strumming singing cowboy of '48, has added an accordian to his collection of melody-makers. Its purchase has inspired wife Eileen to take lessons. Here's hoping both Harvey and Eileen will be on hand on this year's rides.

A big bouquet to Charlie Dunn of Regina. Why? Charlie is a grandpop... Memo for Helen Wischmeyer: Hurry up and get that ankle in form again. This summer we're heading for Assiniboine country and you won't want to miss that ... Memo for Pat Rawlings: Now that you've swung the Diamond Hitch, here's to years of happiness. How about bringing Art along on next summer's ride?

Forty-eighters will be sorry to hear comrade Benakis of N.Y.C. has given up riding . . . Audrey Hunt getting lots of ski practice on Californian slopes . . . Rumor has it that Elizabeth Smith and her talented teen agers may be with us on first ride this year. Here's hoping . . . We hear that Olive Hanley paid a recent visit to Sunshine Lodge. Olive is at present travel counsellor with the Canadian Consulate General in Chicago.

Rilla Jones of Calgary nucleus of impromptu trail riders' reunion earlier this winter. Present were Kay Spalding, Gertrude Gleason, Dora Baptie, Mr. and Mrs. Mel Gourlay, Tillie Knight and Jean Stewart. Even a Skyline Hiker was present—Lou Shulman who has since become a trail rider as well.

Does that cover scene look familiar? It undoubtedly does to those who followed Ex-President Dr. Harold Price on the glamorous trail of '48. Photographed by Georgia Engelhard of New York City, the imposing scene was snapped as the cavalcade proceeded along Fatigue Pass with lordly Mount Assiniboine in the background.

Congratulations to Georgia for this fine piece of photography.

The Melody Makers

(Bud McLaughlin)

Lloyd Johnston and his squeeze box accompanying the melodian. Jean Stewart seems to approve of the results!

$m Y_{ES,}$ if it makes music bring it along!

That's our advice to those who have rhythm in their souls and melody makers in their possession.

In fact it doesn't have to be pure melody as we know it . . . unless you think there's pure melody in a kazoo or tin flute. And who knows, we might rally sufficient instrumental talent to produce a harmonica quartet, trio, duet or at least a solo.

Even if this announcement lays an egg and we have no takers there will still be music when campfire time rolls around.

First, we have the "old reliable" with us again. This is the famed four-octave melodian which still manages to emit a few common chords (and a few uncommon) between wheezes.

At the time of writing we're still hoping Lloyd Johnston of Fort William, Ont., will be back with his accordion. Lloyd made a big hit with the gang last summer and has now earned a lasting place in the Trail Ride hall of fame.

The trail ride song book includes the latest parodies, written to standard song favorites, by John Murray Gibbon, and which have proven so popular at our nightly singsongs.

So remember . . . if you have a melody maker, bring it along. And if you can't sing, come along anyway and whistle.

A Hiker on the Ride

by Frank and Ernest

I'm just a hiker on the ride, Without me they'd be lost; I'm always very willing To be shoved around and bossed.

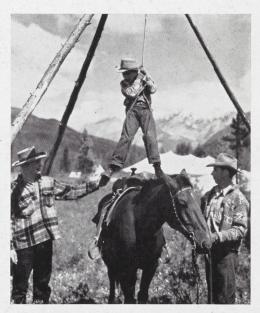

I'm always ready at the time To ride the mountain chain, I do my best come rain or shine, Of me they can't complain.

I've never failed them anytime, I'm Johnny on the spot, I seldom pull a boner yet The rules I'm never taught.

I never grumble when no grub Is handed down my way, It's hard for me to crack a smile But still I'm always gay.

I may be beat and pushed about And treated very coarse; I may not get one lone kind word— I'm just a trail ride horse.

Here's how to beat the problem of putting yourself in the saddle. It would suit the editor perfectly.

After the Trail Ride, Why Not Try Hiking?

Trail Riders who are fortunate enough to have part of their holidays left over after hanging up their saddle, can still enjoy a final taste of trail and tepee camp life by attending the annual five-day outing of the Skyline Trail Hikers of the Canadian Rockies.

This sister organization of the Trail Riders will be camping on Bryant Creek Meadows, not far from our own projected campsite, from Saturday, July 29, to Wednesday, August 2, inclusive. There are still plenty of vacancies on the passenger list but to avoid disappointment prospective members should send in their applications early.

Those interested are requested to write the Secretary-Treasurer, Skyline Trail Hikers of the Canadian Rockies, Windsor Station, Montreal. Complimentary issues of the "Trail Riders"

Official Publication of the Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies.

Address all Bulletin material to GRAHAM NICHOLS Secretary-Treasurer and Editor Room 284, Windsor Station Montreal, Que., Canada

"Skyline Trail", official publication of the order and further particulars, will be mailed on request.

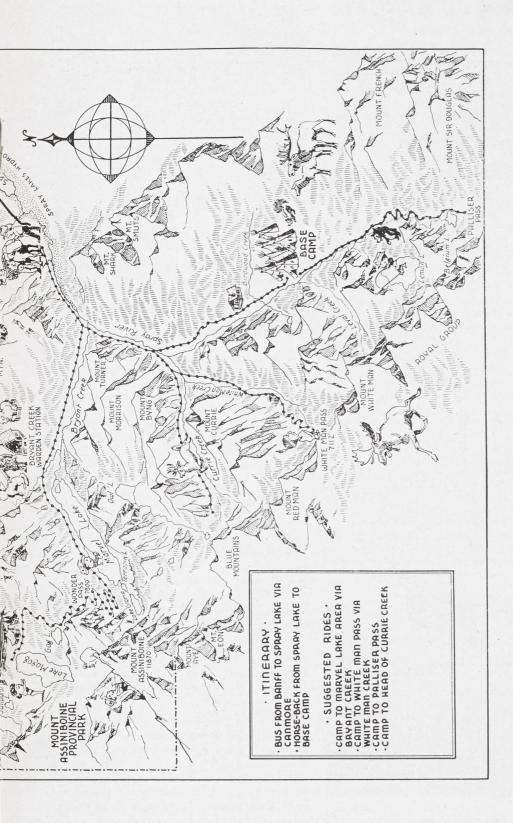

As in the case of trail riders, the hikers will assemble at Banff and be transported by bus from Banff to a turnoff just west of Canmore on the main highway and then along the Calgary Power Company's private road to a point five miles hiking distance from the camp.

Twelve-Day Ride (If sufficient applications)—Friday, July 14th through Tuesday, July 25th.

Campsite and Trails

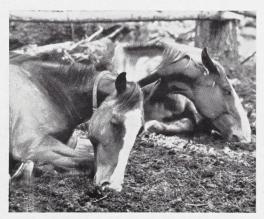

Our tepee camp this summer will rise along the shores of the fast-flowing Spray River, in an area southeast of Banff. It is reached by a ride of 12 miles from the Spray Lake corral where we take to the saddle upon debarking from our bus.

Our ride to camp will constitute the first day's ride. Subsequent rides will take us from camp to Marvel Lake via Bryant Creek, from camp to Whiteman Pass via Whiteman Creek, from camp to Palliser Pass, and from camp to head of Currie Creek.

Bus Itinerary

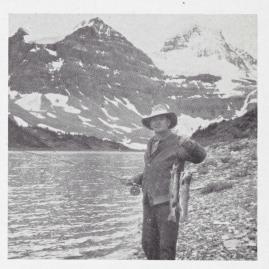

Trail Riders will be transported from Banff to the "horse rendezvous" near Spray Lake by large glass-topped buses of the Brewster Transport Company. Commencing at Banff, the route follows the main highway eastward to a point near Canmore station, 17 miles distant.

Leaving the main highway the buses turn southward along the new private road of the Calgary Power Company along which we proceed for a distance of several miles to the point we take to the saddle.

Point of Assembly

Trail Riders will be picked up at 8.30 a.m. on July 14 and July 21 at the Mount Royal or the Banff Springs Hotel. It is essential that buses leave on schedule to assure an early start on the trail. Trail Riders are requested to HAVE THEIR TICKETS READY when they enter the bus. They are collected from passengers shortly before the bus's departure.

Duffel and Baggage

A sturdy water-proof duffel bag is standard baggage equipment for the average trail rider. As duffel is transported to camp via pony pack train, bags should be carefully packed and securely tied. It is most important that each duffel bag carry a tag identifying the owner. Tags may be procured at the Trail Ride office in Banff.

Any belongings not required in camp should be checked in Banff for pick-up following the ride. Trail Riders are advised to leave behind fragile objects or those subject to damage from weather and "rough going", on the trail.

"H-Hour" for duffel pick-up is 4.00 p.m. on the day prior to each of the five-day rides. The duffel is collected by truck at the Banff Springs and Mount Royal Hotels at that time. It is transported thence by pack train to camp so as to be there well in advance of the "dudes" arrival.

Trail Riders whose arrival in Banff make it impossible to meet this deadline will have their duffel moved to camp by special transport.

Arrival in Banff

Trail Riders are advised to arrive in Banff at least one day before the ride commences, ie. on July 13th or July 20th.

This will allow them time to register at the Trail Riders office, attend to their duffel, meet some of their fellow trail riders and perhaps enjoy a pre-ride saddle workout on the beautiful trails in the Banff vicinity.

Those wishing to be particularly "saddle-worthy" when they take the trails will find a golden opportunity at nearby Kananaskis Ranch where they can ride to their heart's content. Some riders who become accustomed to a "Kananaskis" horse on such pre-ride workouts frequently earmark that horse for their official trail ride mount.

How to Register

For the convenience of our members, a special office has been set up in the Brewster Industries Building near the main business intersection of Banff. Trail Riders are asked to register here as soon as possible after their arrival.

Here, upon payment of their fees, they will be presented with their tickets, duffel tags, social identification tags, and name and number of their guide and horse. Trail Ride buttons, maps, Bulletins, membership cards and mileage forms can all be procured at the Banff office.

Information as to the rides can also be obtained at the Mount Royal Hotel or the Brewster Transport Company in downtown Banff.

Make Hotel Reservations Early!

It is most important that Trail Riders make their hotel reservations well in advance of their arrival in Banff. Our rides are held during the peak of the tourist season when Banff accommodation facilities are taxed to the limit.

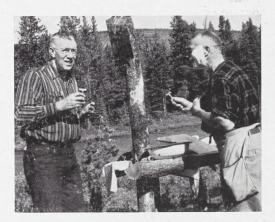

Most trail riders require hotel accommodation for at least the night previous to the ride and for the night the ride returns to Banff. Now is the time to make your reservations.

LETTER REVIVES PAST

Here's How It All Began

The secretary-treasurer received an interesting document of our early days recently in the form of a letter addressed to prospective trail riders signed by Dr. John Murray Gibbon, one of the principal founders and at present honorary president.

Dated, Montreal, May 22, 1924—the year of our first official ride—the letter reads as follows:

Dear Sir:

Early in July, 1923, a party of Trail Riders was encamped on the plateau which lies between Tumbling Creek Glacier and the Gap in the Vermilion Range of the Canadian Rockies known as Wolverine Pass. It was Sunday, and the weather unpropitious, so lunch was followed by an afternoon nap.

Suddenly one of the party woke up with a brainstorm, and when the rest had gathered once more round the Campfire, propounded the idea that had struck him, namely, the foundation of a new Order to be called the Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies. Then and there it was decided that the idea was worth while, and others to whom it was afterwards suggested enthusiastically concurred.

After many consultations, and much correspondence with old-timers, tourists, alpine climbers, trail riders, park officials, geologists, guides, etc., the enclosed Constitution has been drafted. Buttons, based on the designs shown above on this letterhead, have been prepared. With the generous co-operation of Mr. H. B. Clow, President of the Rand McNally Company, of Chicago, charts have been printed showing all the known trails within the area selected.

The first Annual Camp will be held in the Yoho Valley, opposite Takakkaw Falls, on July 17, 1924, a few days before the opening of the Alpine Club of Canada Camp.

It is planned to hold a Pow-Wow in the evening, the 18th being spent on a ride up the Yoho Valley and return on the Upper Trail. The panorama from Look-Out Point is in the highest degree spectacular.

As we understand you are interested in Trail Riding, we take the liberty of writing to you and asking—

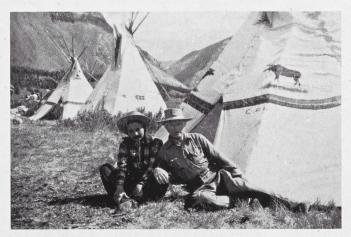

- (1) Would you care to apply for membership in the Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies?
- (2) Is there any possibility of your being able to attend the first Annual Camp?

MEMBERSHIP:

Applicants for membership will receive charts covering the area in the Canadian Rockies specified in the Constitution. They will be asked to mark in red ink the trails over which they have ridden, and return the charts to the Honorary Secretary.

These charts will be measured for mileage by a Membership Committee consisting of well-known guides, whose decision shall be final.

> In order that the proposed Order shall maintain a democratic basis, it has been decided to leave the selection of Officers to those who attend the first Annual Camp, the preliminary steps towards the formation of the Order being undertaken by an Organizing Committee, the list of members of which will be found on this letterhead. Dr. Charles D. Walcott, Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution at Washington, D.C., has kindly consented to accept nomination as Honorary President.

Trail Riders take it easy on tepee threshold. Photo was taken by "Toppy" Edwards of National Geographic in 1947.

Bring a New Member On This Year's Ride!

Are you spreading the good word?

Chances are you have many friends and acquaintances who would "go overboard" for the trail riding idea once they were familiar with the facts. Now is the time to contact them and give them a chance to sample the ride's delights for themselves!

It makes the ride doubly joyful to have your favorite home-town pal along with you, though we must admit you make new trail ride pals in record time.

If you know of any likely candidates, just send his or her name to the secretary-treasurer and full details, including latest Bulletins, will be submitted promptly to the interested party.

We know we have a good thing in the trail rides. It's far too good to keep to ourselves. Let's give our friends a chance to share the fun.

Twelve-Day Ride - Maybe

The question of whether or not we hold a twelve-day ride this summer will depend on the number of applicants from those interested in a "long ride."

To conduct a ride of this duration, the outfitter must have a minimum number of 15 riders signed up by June 1st at the latest.

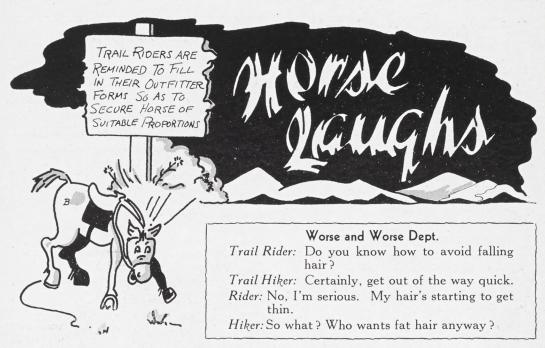

Should the minimum quota not be reached by that time applicants already registered for the 12-day ride will have the alternative course of attending both five-day rides, and remaining in camp and taking side tours during the interim on the same per diem rate as on the five-day ride.

Dude: I don't think I like the look of that horse's head.

Cowboy: Don't worry, you'll soon get over that.

Captain (to cavalryman sitting on ground minus his horse):

What are you doing over here — orders from headquarters?

Cavalryman: No, hindquarters.

Rule No. 1 for Trail Riders—Keep horse between yourself and the ground.

Hubby made the mistake of uttering the name of "Margaret" while talking in his sleep. Next morning suspicious wife enquired as to Margaret's identity.

"Margaret's a horse," said hubby thinking fast.

That evening his wife summoned him to the telephone.

"Who is it? dear," he asked, enroute to the telephone.

"It's your horse," replied friend wife.

Tillie: Do you do much horseback riding? Trail Ride Candidate: O yes, off and on.

As the train pulled into Banff station, the porter knocked on the compartment door. "Banff" he announced, "Shall I brush you off, Madam?"

"Certainly not," she announced indignantly, "I shall descend in the usual way."

Diner: Waiter, do you have pigs' feet?

Waiter: Yes sir.

Diner: Well, how the heck do you get your shoes on?

Add Comparisons: That's the longest face I've ever seen that wasn't wearing a bridle.

The Hoss Rancher's Daughter

by RAY BAGLEY

I rode down the trail in the evening With the girl who would soon be my bride Me on my good hoss Paint, She ridin' close beside; She was a hoss rancher's daughter Raised in the hills on the Bow, Always astride of a wild one Tho' it used to frighten me so.

The injuns were holdin' a pow-wow Where the Ghost runs into the Bow Old Devil's Head far in the distance Was wearin' a mantle of snow; Buckskin beads and feathers, Bells on ankles achime, Young bucks beatin' the tom-tom, Havin a heck of a time.

Squaws in their shawls of bright color A shufflin' around and around With their stolid wooden faces, Eyes lookin' down at the ground. Some half dozen bucks in a circle Was a-doin' the loop the loop, And a naked old buck in the middle Was skinnin the cat thru' a hoop

I was a settin' there rollin' a smoke, Old Paint kinda takin a nap, When Nell's hoss reared up and bolted Runnin' wild with his head in her lap. The place was plumb covered with boulders, Too late when she turned his head free, It happened so all of a sudden It seemed it just couldn't be.

The hoss hooked his foot in a crevice And fell on the side of the hill; We found her there mongst the boulders, Bruised and broken and still. We buried her high on the hillside, Slopin' down to the Ghost and the Bow And all of the sunlight had vanished And peace I never would know.

I saddled old Paint and I drifted
To far lands rode far trails in vain;
To night the Chinook winds are calling
And I know that I'll go back again.
There'll be snow on the hills in Alberta,
There'll be ice on the Ghost and the Bow;
The ponies will paw in the valley
For the grass that lies buried below.

But the roses will bloom in the springtime Where she sleeps on the hill by the Bow, And I want to be there when the grass comes And the valley is cleared of the snow. I'll ride the old trails in the evening, I'll dream the old dreams as of yore; Perhaps I shall find peace and comfort When I'm back in Alberta once more.

Trail Riders Featured In Advertising Display

Through the international export advertising campaign of Joseph E. Seagram & Sons, the Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies are to be introduced to millions of readers who might otherwise never have known of our activities.

In a series of display advertisements depicting "Exclusively Canadian" scenes, the Trail Riders organization was accorded a place of honor with such leading examples of Canadiana as the Calgary Stampede, Nova Scotia's tuna fishing competition, ice hockey, and Canadian festivals.

Topping the advertisement which appears in a number of leading publications, is a beautiful Trail Ride scene, seven inches in width, depicted in four colors and accompanied by the following descriptive note:

"Each summer the Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies whose world-wide membership is open to 'dudes' of every race, color and creed, gather amid the majesty of snow capped peaks to ride the alpine trails and camp in the valleys of one of Canada's loveliest playgrounds."

Against a background of majestic Mount Assiniboine is shown a typical trail riders' tepee camp with horses and trail riders in the foreground. The scene is bound to stir interest in the organization by many having a yen for the saddle and mountain trails.

The Trail Riders feel honored in being among the few subjects selected by Seagram's as being "Exclusively Canadian".

Party May Return

Rumor has it that "Lib" Smith of Jenkintown, Pa., and her charming party of teenagers who delighted us at last year's singsongs, will be back with us again on one of the five-day rides. Here's hoping it's more than a rumor.

And judging by an expertly prepared mimeographed diary of their holiday, copy of which the editor recently received, the girls have a wealth of happy memories of their 1949 visit to the Canadian Rockies. The diary, commencing with a 27-stanza poem on the trip's highlights covers the girls' activities from July 1st to July 27th.

New Mileage Forms

Something new has been added to trail ride form-alities.

A new form, designed to assist each member in keeping track of his or her trail riding mileage will make its debut on the trails this summer.

Upon commencement of the ride, each member will be provided with the new form which provides ample space on which to detail all mileage covered on the trail.

The forms will be collected at the end of the rides, and the mileages shown thereon transferred to each members card on file at headquarters office.

We think the results will be acceptable to everyone. We'll give it a good try, anyway.

Hoffmeyer (on honeymoon) believes in signs.

Membership Cards Ready Upon Payment of Dues

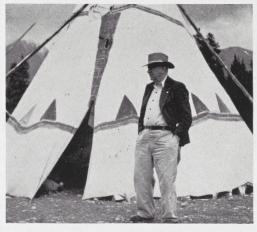

All members who have not yet paid their annual membership dues for 1950 are requested to do so at their earliest convenience. The amount is only two dollars and the funds are necessary to meet our operating expenses for the year.

Special notices are now being sent to all trail riders requesting payment of their 1950 dues and it is hoped these will be heeded as promptly as possible.

Please send your checks or money orders to the secretary-treasurer, Trail Riders of the Canadian Rockies, Room 284, Windsor Station, Montreal. Official receipt and new membership card will be forwarded the sender by return mail.

We would like to remind our readers that life membership can be acquired for $25.00 which absolves such members from further payment of annual dues. In addition to having his or her name added to the life membership list in the Bulletin, the member receives a special certificate topped by a typical trail ride scene.

Only those with 500 miles or more on prescribed Rocky Mountain trails are eligible for life membership.

Dr. Gibbon on 1949 ride

Sign up Now!

It's time to look ahead, Trail Riders!

We have passed the half-way mark between last year's and this year's rides and are now going into the last big stretch. Applications already have started to trickle in and we hope the trickle turns into a torrential flow.

No doubt, there are many members who have tentatively decided to join us this summer but have not officially advised the secretary-treasurer.

Inasmuch as we have only limited accommodation on each of the five-day rides, we must adopt the slogan "First there, first served."

It is fully understood that many who hope to be with us on the trails cannot commit themselves definitely at this early date. However, it would be much appreciated if all whose minds are made up would notify the secretarytreasurer.

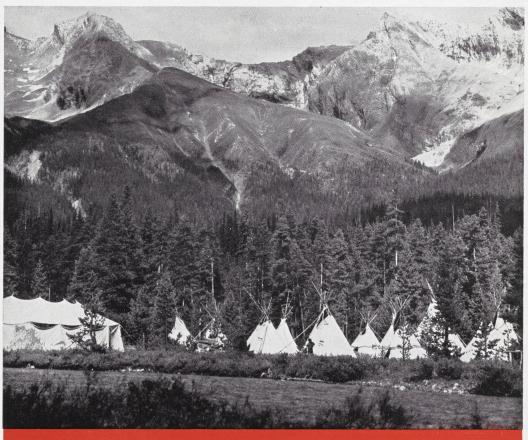

Confirmation of each reservation will be sent by return mail as well as outfitter's form for those coming on their first ride. Each application should be accompanied by a $10.00 deposit.
